

Medicaid Renewals Social Media Toolkit

Please share the below messages and images on your social media pages to help promote awareness of the Medicaid renewal process. Click on each image to download it. You can also use the hashtag #StayCoveredRI. For more information or to download this toolkit in other languages, visit staycovered.ri.gov.

Where can I find information about Medicaid renewals?

For FAQs, sample letters, and more information, visit StayCovered.RI.gov.

When will I renew my Medicaid coverage?

You'll get a letter from the State between now and April 2024. Find your estimated renewal date by logging in to healthyrhode.ri.gov.

If I'm not eligible for Medicaid anymore, what happens to my coverage?

If you're no longer eligible for Medicaid, the State will connect you with low-cost health insurance options.

Suggested captions are on page 2.

Medicaid renewals are back. You'll get a letter about your coverage between now and April 2024 with information about how to stay covered. Find your estimated renewal date by logging in to your account on healthyrhode.ri.gov.

If someone's Medicaid coverage is going to end because they're no longer eligible, they'll be given information on how to apply for low-cost health insurance through @HealthSource RI. To learn more, visit staycovered.ri.gov.

Medicaid renewals are back! Find FAQs, downloadable resources, and sample renewal letters in multiple languages on staycovered.ri.gov.

Update your contact information today so the State can send you important updates about your Medicaid coverage. To learn more, visit staycovered.ri.gov.

Not all Medicaid members will be renewed at once. You'll get a letter from the State sometime between now and April 2024 letting you know when it's your turn to renew. To learn more, visit staycovered.ri.gov.

#DYK? Families with children won't get their Medicaid renewal notice until December 2023. Update your contact information today so the State can send you important updates about your family's coverage. To learn more, visit staycovered.ri.gov.

Have you recently moved, or did you get a new phone number? To update your contact information, visit healthyrhode.ri.gov.

EOHHS wants to make sure you and your family get important information about your health care coverage. Make sure your address is updated and that you read everything you get in the mail from the State of Rhode Island or your Managed Care Organization. To update your contact information, visit healthyrhode.ri.gov.

Medicaid Members! Have you had a change in address, income, household size, phone #, or email? Don't forget to update your account information on healthyrhode.ri.gov.